

Gerard Easley is a Security Consultant specializing in Threat & Risk Assessments, Intelligence, Physical Security assessments, Crime and Loss Prevention, Crime Analysis and Operations Security (OPSEC).

More than 25 years of formal training and experience conducting Threat & Risk Assessments on people, facilities and operations. i.e., mass shooting risk reduction, workplace violence, job related threats on CEO's, Senior leaders & employee's, high dollar thefts, tractor trailer shipments, security breaches, workers compensation accident prevention...

Federal law enforcement & security experiences with the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Intelligence, Personnel Security (Adjudicator) and the Operations Security Threat Assessment Branch. Other experiences as a Law Enforcement Security Officer (armed Physical Security Specialist with arrest, search & seizure authority), Supervisory Federal Police Officer with the U.S. Federal Protective Service. Other experiences included many years as a Criminal Investigator and U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Task Force Agent.

Member of the American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS).

Member of the International Association of Law Enforcement Intelligence Analysts (IALEIA).

Certified as a Level III, Senior Intelligence Analyst by a DOD component Agency.

Graduate of the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center's (FLETC) in Glynco, GA and Artesia, NM:

- Certified as an expert to conduct Threat & Risk Assessments, Physical Security academy. Training was co-sponsored by the U.S. Federal Protective Service and American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS).
- Federal Law Enforcement Instructor.
- Federal Police Officer Academy.

Peace Officer Standards and Training Council (POST) certified in the State of Georgia.

Graduate of the 57th Georgia State Patrol, State Trooper School in Atlanta, Georgia.

Graduate of the Ritz-Carlton Leadership academy.

Past private sector experiences included:

- Private Investigative company owner, Atlanta, GA
- Director of Loss Prevention for, the Ritz-Carlton, Atlanta.
- Loss Prevention Investigator for Neiman Marcus, Washington, DC